CATHOLIC CENTER MISSION STATEMENT

The Catholic Center at the University of Georgia is a Eucharistic Community that seeks to live the gospel of Jesus Christ in the tradition of our Roman Catholic faith and the spirit of St. Francis. As Christian disciples we are charged to answer Christ's call for compassion by becoming instruments of peace, charity and justice. We seek to stand in solidarity with the poor, the stranger, the alienated and to collaborate with those who serve them in local and global communities. We endeavor to respect a universe created by God in Love.

~Pope Francis

CATHOLIC TRIVIA

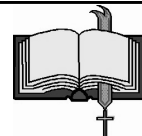

Which one of the twelve disciples travelled and preached in Persia and throughout southeast Asia and is sometimes referred to as the "Apostle of India"?

Answer to last week's question: The seven books included in Catholic Bibles, but not accepted as biblical for Protestants, are Tobit, Judith, 1 and 2 Maccabees, Wisdom, Sirach, and Baruch. Catholic Bibles also include sections in the Books of Esther and Daniel which are not found in Protestant Bibles.

Each year adults are welcomed into the Catholic Church Community through the Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults (RCIA) process, a process through which adults have the opportunity to join others to clarify and discern God's desires for them. The initial steps of the journey include relaxed getting acquainted, sharing ideas, discussing topics and asking questions to help discern whether one is being called to continue the journey. It is a coming together in faith to learn more about Catholicism and God's call in your life.

RCIA begins at the Catholic Center on Tuesday, August 23rd. For more information about the RCIA, please contact Sr. Barbara Daniels in the Center office.
