

AUGUST 18, 2019 TWENTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

The Catholic Center

Welcome back, students!

On behalf of the Catholic Center, we want to welcome all new and returning students to UGA! We are excited to have you back on campus and are looking forward to a great school year! We have made lots of exciting changes over the summer and we hope that you will enjoy these changes as we believe they will be an opportunity for growth at our center.

Most significantly is the addition of Fr. Casey and Sr. Uyen-Chi to the CSA staff. They will oversee all things campus ministry and look forward to being a great resource to all students' needs. If you're looking for spiritual direction, want to start a new apostolate, need help with any issues, or just want someone to hang out with, these two are here for you!

You'll also notice that the mass times have changed slightly. This is to serve you, the students, best. Moving daily mass later in the day (5:30PM Monday through Thursday and 7:30AM Friday) and 6:00PM on Sunday will hopefully make it more convenient for you to join our community worship. In addition to this, we have added more opportunities to pray with the friars and overall community with Evening Prayer at 5:00PM Monday through Thursday and 7:15AM on Friday mornings.

Finally, we will be rolling out a new weekly ministry called "Arch Ministries," that will meet every Thursday. This is an opportunity for all students to gather in fellowship and learn from various speakers. Look for more information in the coming weeks!

We are always open to new ideas and suggestions that will improve our ability to answer the needs of those who call the Catholic Center home, especially for the UGA community. We are here to minister to you and support you in your experiences at UGA and your walk with Christ. If there is anything we can do, please do not hesitate to visit with us.

Peace and many blessings,
The Staff of the Catholic Center

INTRODUCING CATHOLIC QUESTIONS

Check the bulletin every week for a new question about our faith answered by Fr. Casey. These questions will range from liturgy to social action, offering some background to why the Catholic Church believes and says what we do. The goal of each segment will be to provide some insight into the richness of our faith and shine a light on the many things that we often do without thinking.

Next week, look for the first segment: "To genuflect or to bow: which is the right thing to do in Church?"

PARKING FOR THE WEEKEND MASSES

Just a reminder that Catholic Center attendees may NOT park at the Campus View Church next door during the 8AM or 10AM Sunday Masses, as it interferes with their own Sunday morning services. Overflow for the Saturday or Sunday evening Masses may park there. Other parking options include the International Education building next to the Center, the Georgia Center lot (pay lot) or Barrow Elementary School.

EMAIL SCAM ALERT

We have been alerted to an email scam which involves an email from Fr. Frank asking for a "favor" or gift card. This is a scam! Fr. Frank or Fr. Casey will never send an email asking for favors or gift cards. In addition the only legitimate emails are below:

frankofm@ccatuga.org
caseyofm@ccatuga.org

Please contact the CC office if you are uncertain if the email is actually from the sender.
