“Blessed are those who mourn for they will be comforted.”

Thank you all for the many cards, texts, calls and emails during the past couple of weeks on the passing of my sister Brenda. I felt she was very much part of this community as you continued to pray for her and inquire about her over the past few years. She was an amazing, strong, gifted and courageous woman who fought the good fight and always had more concern for those around her than for herself. A huge part of my heart is missing and hopefully, as a family, we will be able to celebrate her life sometime in the future when restrictions are lifted. I have been blessed and comforted by so many of you and I thank you from the bottom of my heart this day and always.

Today, let us join with women and men throughout our community as we pray our Beatitudes of Women for the amazing and gifted women who are leaving us: Blessed is she who suffers with the very young, the very old, and the very lonely for she has compassion.

Blessed is she, who greets the world with joy, laughter, and anticipation, for she has courage.

Blessed is she who speaks gently, lives humbly, and chooses to give freely, for she has dignity.

Blessed is she, who listens and hears and extends her hands as a friend,
for she has understanding.

Blessed is she who gives simply, loves deeply, and walks joyfully in life, for she has sincerity.

Blessed is she, who lives intensely and sings life's alleluias, for she has awareness.

Blessed is she who has compassion and courage, freedom and dignity, understanding, sincerity, and awareness,
for she is a woman, a gift, a blessing.

Blessed is she who SAYS Yes to God, who IS bread for others by her many acts of love, which feed and nurture those for whom she cares.

We give thanks today and always for the gift of Sr. Marietta, Sr. Margarita and Sr. Barbara, women of courage and strength and commitment. We thank them for their ministry and their life of service in our Catholic Center Community, Oasis Catolico and throughout our community. May God bless each one of you.
