The Catholic Center

WELCOME BACK CATHOLIC DAWGS - students, faculty and staff. Welcome to incoming freshmen and those who have transferred to UGA. It's good to have all of you here. Our prayers are for a good school year even in the midst of this pandemic.

This year we will come together in different ways at the Catholic Center, but that's okay! We want to be safe while still enhancing the college experience. We're challenged to find the best way that we can respond to the pandemic and yet remain strong as a community of faith.

We invite you to get involved, reacquaint yourself with old friends and meet new friends. We invite you to celebrate your faith here at the Catholic Center and share it with our UGA community.

This weekend in the gospel, Jesus asks the question: "Who do you say that I am." All of us need to answer that question. That's Jesus' way of asking, "who am I in YOUR life." Peter acknowledges Jesus is the Christ, the anointed One. My prayer is that our coming together will strengthen each of us in acknowledging Him in the same way. I look back at my journey of faith and remember well that my Catholic Center was an important place that helped me in my walk with the Lord, a walk that began many years ago when I was a student at UGA. Please know we're here for you and with you!

Both Fr. Brian and I look forward to meeting you and being with you.

Blessings and peace,

Fr. Fred

STUDENT FOOD PANTRY

We have learned that many of our students, especially in the dorms, do not have easy access to food, especially this semester. We are seeking donations of single serve meals such as soup, macaroni cheese, etc. and other non perishable foods for students to pick up to take back to their rooms. We will have a bin for donations in the Catholic Center lobby .

VOLUNTEER WITH US!

We have a number of upcoming volunteer opportunities here at the Catholic Center. Our Catholic Center members are incredibly generous with their time and talents. Thank you so, so much! If you have been wanting to volunteer but just don't know how to begin, here's your chance. Check out these awesome opportunities! For More information call the office 706-543-2293 or check our website for sign-up links!
