Coats for Kids

KOC is hosting Coats for Kids! They are collecting money donations and gently-used coats in all sizes after masses on Nov. 20-21 and Nov. 27-28. A $15 donation will buy a lightweight coat for a child who would otherwise not have one this winter. A portion of you donations will be matched by the Knight's Supreme national council. So your $15 will turn into $30. All coats and donations go directly to buy coats for the children in the Athens area. We support Oasis, ACTS, St. Joseph's Charities and others. We thank you for your support! For more information contact John Steffl 706-338-5551.

A Message from Fr. Brian

Dear Catholic Community at UGA ,

Go Braves! We had a braves watch party during the last game of the World Series. We had a bonfire with smores while the projector screen displayed the game outside. It was a historic moment for the Braves and a great evening together.

Last week, one of our students spoke on an inter-religious panel and represented the Catholic Center. She did a great job! I think of the scene where St Paul went to the Athens, Greece in Acts 17 and shared the gospel to the intellectuals in the Aereopogus. The student simply shared the gospel and her experience of incorporating the gospel into her life.

This coming week, our students are hosting a Thanksgiving dinner for the other religious organizations on campus. We've been interacting with the Church of Latter Day Saints as well as the Muslim Student Association. I recently invited all of campus ministries of UGA to join us!

We currently have over 125 students attending weekly Bible studies. Our FOCUS missionaries lead these groups. While it's not about the numbers, the amount of young people who are wanting to grow in their relationship with God is significant. It's very special to walk alongside them and cheer them on. They are inspiring!

Our student RCIA track has been going well. We have twelve students who are becoming Catholic. They come from various backgrounds and each have someone who is walking them along the process and attending the weekly sessions with them. It's a great time opening up the fundamentals of our faith.

A new season of our Catholic Dawgs Podcast is underway. They are conversations that I host with students about their faith and their lives. I believe that the young people's faith shouldn't be held under a bushel basket but ought to shine brightly for all to see. They are captivating and fun conversations. You can check it out on Apple podcasts or Spotify.

Go Dawgs!
Fr. Brian

Announcements

Mr. Catholic Center

The Catholic Student Association is hosting their annual Mr. Catholic Center event. This men's talent show and charity pageant raises money for the Catholic Student Association and the Alternative Spring Break Mission Trips. The entire Catholic Center Community is invited to attend on Friday, Nov. 19th at 7PM. Doors will open 10 minutes before the show begins and tickets are $5. Come support our students as they compete in a group dance, formal wear, talent, and Q&A categories. We are collecting donations after all of the Masses this weekend to reach the guys' individual fundraising goals. If you know of local Athens businesses interested in donating or sponsoring the event, contact bulletin@ccatuga.org. We are currently accepting donations both through our online giving portal at <https://bit.ly/MrCathCen> by clicking the "Give Now" option and checks should be made out to the "CC at UGA" with "Mr.CC" in the memo. Thank you for your support!

Sunday Night Dinner Volunteers

We are looking for volunteers who like to cook and prepare food for our students for Sunday Night Dinners. The team will work from 3-5:30PM. Please sign-up on our website or call the office. We are also looking for some baked goodies for desserts! Please drop them off during the week in the office. Thank you for your loving support of this ministry!

Knights of Columbus Corner

As we celebrate Veteran's Day: One of the founding pillars of the Knights of Columbus is Patriotism. We are distinguished for having the duty of sponsoring patriotic activities and programs such as: the Color Corps and Honor Guard presentation for ceremonies, funerals and special Mass celebrations; the Military Chaplain Scholarship Program; and, different veteran support programs. On Nov 13 and 14, after Mass, we will be giving US flags as a memento to celebrate Veteran's Day. Please take a flag home and consider giving a donation to support our mission. The flags are free.

Denny Towers Thanksgiving Dinner

The annual Thanksgiving dinner at Denny Towers is on Sunday, Nov. 21, at 12PM. Denny Towers are low-income apartments for seniors in Athens. We will serve a traditional Thanksgiving feast of turkey with all the trimmings and LOTS of delicious pies! We are also accepting small donations (think $5) for purchasing a gift. This is a great opportunity to kick off the holiday season on a very positive note! Contact Cathy Clutter at (706)255-1033 or at cclutter@uga.edu.
