Hello Catholic Center,

Thank you all for your warm welcome as I begin this position as your Director of Music and Liturgy. As interim Director, I quickly realized how friendly, welcoming, and fruitful this community is and was honored when Fr. Brian asked me to stay on permanently.

My desire for the Catholic Center's music ministry is one that brings forth music that is efficacious and serves both the Liturgy and you, the congregation; that you may be lifted up in worship through song in the sacred Liturgy. The Church has a great music tradition, from contemporary music to Gregorian chant, and my goal is to have a balance of music that celebrates said tradition.

We are blessed to have various ensembles and volunteers who give their time and talent, and I pray we may continue to grow in our ministry. I also want to acknowledge and thank them for their service in this season of change.

I look forward to meeting more of you and encourage you to come by after Mass to the music area to introduce yourself.

A bit of my background: I studied music at Rhode Island College and Liturgical music through Notre Dame. I've been working for the Catholic Church for over 16 years as a Music Director, Director of Youth Ministry, and Pastoral Associate.

My fantastic wife, Emily, is a musician as well. She studied at Juilliard School of Music and New England Conservatory for Operatic Vocal Performance. We have four kids (Bridget, Veronica, Juliette, & Benedict)...beautiful-controlled-chaos...

Again, thank you for the welcome, and I look forward to serving this great community!

Justin Dery
