“Always rejoice. Pray without ceasing. In everything give thanks, for this is the will of God for you in Jesus Christ” 1Thessalonians 5:16-18

I am going to be away from the Catholic Center for a few weeks. My journey starts with babysitting our first grandbaby in a hotel in Chicago while my daughter attends a conference...a tough job, I know. From there, we travel to the mountains of Virginia to celebrate my son's wedding when we gain a wonderful daughter-in-law and 4 amazing bonus grandchildren. The celebration continues to the beaches of North Carolina to honor my dad's 90 years on this earth. God is so very good, and I am so very grateful for these blessings.

From my vantage point in the little office at the front door of the Catholic Center, I am also grateful to witness the generosity, kindness and spirit of our students, members, and staff. Many of these people volunteer their time and talent in quiet ways that are not often recognized but are critical to our Center.

We have a team of volunteers who wash the altar linens. Every week, the altar linens are picked up, laundered, and returned. We are so grateful for their ministry but probably never knew this work was being done behind the scenes. Our Chapel decorating crew also do their work when no one is around. They ensure that our Chapel is ready for each new liturgical season and holiday. The coordination that it takes to go from Advent to Christmas or Lent to Holy Week, for example, is quite impressive. We are grateful that they facilitate a wonderful environment for us to worship.

Every Sunday afternoon during the school year, a group of volunteers meet in the kitchen to prepare Sunday Night Dinner for roughly 200 students. Our students are so grateful for a home cooked meal after their Sunday Night Mass. The students are also so grateful for everyone who stocks our student pantry with snacks and quick meals. Just about every student's first stop when they come into the Center is the Student Pantry.

Each day I see our Catholic Student Association leadership team planning retreats, events, meetings and much more. Their work behind the scenes ensures that the Catholic Center is a home away from home for all our students. They do all of this while taking classes, volunteering throughout the community, and living the college student life. We are so grateful for all of our students.

We are so grateful for all of our volunteers who bake, sing, clean, organize, shop, pray, visit, serve and much more. These volunteers are the heart of the Catholic Center. We are grateful for all of you.

And let the peace of Christ control your hearts, the peace into which you were also called in one body and be thankful. Colossians 3:15
