A Message from Fr. Brian

Friends,

Let us take a moment and reflect: What gifts has God entrusted to you? What are those talents that seem to flow naturally? Then ask, What are the desires God has placed on your heart? What fills you with passion and zeal?

Consider how you can offer these gifts and desires back to God, for the love of Him and the service of your neighbor. Whether through acts of charity, creativity, or simply being present to others, these gifts are part of your vocation and mission in Christ.

Give thanks for these blessings—they are signs of God's providence in your life. Pursue them with faith, trusting that God is with you. If things don't unfold as you hope, rest in the knowledge that your effort, offered with your heart, is always pleasing to God! He delights in you always.

Let's keep each other in prayer

Fr Brian
